The price movement since April 1st 2025 till date was as follows

The crop arrival at the moment around 50000 bags per day

The market rates softened in view of the new crop arrival pressure. At the moment the prices have breached the Rs.90/Kg support levels and it seems that the market is still trying to find a groove. Lack of any outcome in the US Tariffs talks has started weighing on the market.

The demand from the food and oil drilling sectors is spread out with no spike in the demand pattern but there has definitely been a gradual overall increase.

Container availability is still difficult. Sailings have become more and more erratic. In the monsoons we may see many blank / revised sailing schedules. In view of the delays in shipments we suggest to plan your purchases and shipment well in advance and with enough safety margin.

Nothing can be forecasted about the Guar market for sure. The market is controlled by speculators/traders.
